

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

IN RE: GOOGLE, INC. SHAREHOLDER
DERIVATIVE LITIGATION

No. C 11-4248 PJH

ORDER RE TEMPORARY STAY

The court has approved the parties' stipulation to temporarily stay this action for 60 days, while the parties engage in private mediation. The parties also indicate that they "reserve the right to modify" the stipulation "depending on the progress of their discussions." While the court will be amenable to an extension of the stay if it will facilitate resolution of the case, it notes that, in previous instances, the parties filed repeated requests for extensions while there were motions still pending on the court's docket. See Dkts. 64, 68, 71. Thus, the court sets a final deadline of August 1, 2014, by which time the parties must either (1) advise the court that a settlement has been reached, or (2) terminate the motions pending on the court's docket. If the parties take no action by that date, the court will assume that the case is going forward and will issue orders on any pending motions.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
